Pre-employment program

• • • • ● Training is not enough!

tarGET up-skills students already in the work place and students aspiring to enter the work place. Preparing a student to be capable at work requires supporting him or her to a point where they are confident enough to demonstrate initiative, consistency, and autonomy. tarGET is passionate about supporting those in training with the aim to achieve sustainable employment outcomes.

By structuring longer duration of training in a live enterprise environment we can assist in the break-through links required for sustainable employment outcomes.
